Dear George:

Our Legal Staff has reviewed your letter of May 23 concerning your various non-Government interests, and have advised me that they do not see any conflict of interest. This will be formalized in future correspondence that you will receive from the Office of Personnel. I will try to avoid your having to resupply this information on the Standard Form, though it may still be necessary in order to comply with certain prescribed procedures. I will have to leave these technicalities to the experts in this area.

It was good to see you last week, and I was glad that we had the opportunity to provide some briefing in connection with your forthcoming travel. I hope that you will find it useful, and that your travel will be pleasant and successful.

Sincerely yours,

Signed Herbert Scoville, Jr.
